TERMS:

Fifty percent of estimated charges must accompany original/transparency/digital file at the beginning of the job. The balance is due upon completion and before shipping. Payment can be by credit card or check. Currently, we accept American Express or Check ONLY.

SCANNING:

We use a 3400 Hell Drum scanner for transparencies/negatives and a direct digital scanner for original art up to 40 x 60. Scan price included the removal of any dust or imperfections that occur during the scanning process. Our scans are color managed to our system for accuracy in color matching and to reduce proofing time. We scan specifically for the IRIS process or the Piezography® process adjusting the detail, color space, gamut and tonal ranges for optimum results.

Note: Scans produced for in house printing that have been corrected and enhanced for our printing process are not transferable to the customer. Customers can have a copy of their scans at the time of scanning for a nominal charge of $25 per scan burned to CD-ROM. Quantity discounts available, call for details.

A proof will be required on all digital files unless Color Management issues have been discussed with Cone Editions.

PROOFING:

All work requires a proof unless the customer is willing to accept final prints without a proof, in which case they must sign a simple authorization sheet which directs the studio to produce finals without a proof and image quality of scans; the quality of directed imaging work; or the quality of requested changes. Proofs are required to check color matching. Editions (5 prints or more of an image) or prints 24 x 36 inches or larger will require a signed BAT (at no charge). The BAT print will remain at Cone Editions Press and become the property of Cone Editions Press' archive. It will be used for matching during the final print process as well as for future editioning needs.

Iris printers are no longer being manufactured and as such parts for repair are difficult to come by. Due to this change, editions should be run as soon as possible when proofing.
